

Kirkland Weekly Wealth Newsletter

As stated in the Wealth Building With Weekly Options book, the strategy depends on locating liquid, high dollar, fast moving stock candidates. In addition, it is important to be aware of the overall market environment.

The content of this newsletter endeavors to support you and those strategy goals. The newsletter comes out on Wednesday evenings since Thursday is the day of new weekly option listings.

Candidates listed below offer weekly options and appear to be approaching a market sentiment, trend line or support and resistance areas where a new trade could soon set up.

Stocks setting up patterns on either 30 or 60 minute charts move quickly. Build a watch list – add and delete as they move beyond the pattern or continue in the current direction. On the third week of an expiration month, all stocks become weeklys.

Be sure to apply the strategy rules for entry and exit.

And, remember to determine profit targets and stops prior to entering the trade.

IMPORTANT NOTICE! Stock, futures, and option trading has large potential rewards, but also large potential risks. You must be aware of the risks and willing to accept them in order to invest in the futures equity or options markets. Don't trade with money you can't afford to lose. This is neither a solicitation nor an offer to buy/ sell securities, futures, or listed options.

NOTICE: Other than in testimonials and where identified as actual trading profits, the performance information in this email/newsletter is based on hypothetical or simulated trading. Hypothetical or simulated performance results have certain inherent limitations. Unlike an actual performance record, simulated results do not represent actual trading. Also, since the trades have not actually been executed, the results may have under-or-over compensated for the impact, if any, of certain market factors, such as lack of liquidity. Simulated trading programs in general are also subject to the fact that they are designed with the benefit of hindsight. No representation is being made that any account will or is likely to achieve profits or losses similar to those shown.

IMPORTANT NOTICE! Option trading involves substantial risk of loss. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. As with all speculation, it is up to the individual to determine his or her own financial stability.
